

Having a Soft Heart in a Hardened World

How Jesus deals with the guilt of our sin is pictured in the Passover. Yet the message of the gospel doesn't end there. His goal is to bring healing and freedom to every aspect of our lives.

What do you do when you look at the world around you or within you and say that doesn't seem right? When you feel as if God doesn't know what you're going through and you're not sure he knows where he's going or what he is doing?

K. Young

When sight doesn't make sense,
we are ready to learn: God always sees
more than we see, and we can trust him.

“The LORD will fight for you;
you need only to be still.”

Ex. 14:14

“fear” becomes “trust” (v. 13, 31)

“crying out” becomes “moving on” (.31)

“here today” becomes “never again” (v. 13)

“No arthritis, no handicaps, no cancer, no taxes, no bills, no traffic jams and no septic-tank backups...Close friendship with no cliques, laughter with no putdowns, intimacy, but never any temptation to immorality. No fear, no anger, no hurt feelings, no one will go hungry, all will be satisfied, no weeping, everyone will laugh.”

How do we Trust?

How do we Trust?

Fear Not...

Be silent...

Stand Firm...
