The Church: a people of hope for the world

"For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of the light."

Eph. 5: 8

“Ephesians repeatedly draws a sharp contrast between the believers’ former way of life and their new life in Christ, which means their life should not conform to that of surrounding society. This is due to the fact that these local gatherings were a new humanity and were earthly manifestations of the current heavenly gatherings around the risen Christ.”

Peter O’Brian

Eph. 2:1-10

“Ephesians doesn't give us a list of rules to follow, rather it urges us to allow the inner change of the new birth to shape our character and relationships in radical ways.”

Religion better get more worldly, or sink further into irrelevance.

“You will watch a generation of Christians set the Bible aside in attempt to become more like Jesus. And stunningly it will sound completely plausible. This will perhaps be the cleverest of all the devil’s schemes in your generation. Sacrifice TRUTH for love’s sake. And you will rise or fall based upon whether you will sacrifice one for the other. Will you have the courage to live in the tension of both TRUTH and LOVE?”

“Going forward, our positions on truth cannot change, but our posture toward each other and the world will need to.”

The Church universal will always continue, but each local church is very, very fragile.

The Church universal will always continue, but each local church is very, very fragile.

So Christ himself gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, to equip his people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up.

Eph. 4: 11-12

If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," The eye cannot say to the hand, "I don't need you!" ...the parts that we think are less honorable we treat with special honor.

1 Cor 12

No one can think of themselves so low as to say, "I'm not needed," and no one can think of themselves so high as to say, "I don't need them." 1 Cor. 12

LEGENDS of SPORT

The greatest among you will be the servants...

He who is greatest among you shall be a servant. That's the new definition of greatness.... By giving that definition of greatness, it means that everybody can be great, because everybody can serve.
