The World

Gen. 1:1 – Rev. 22:21

I, John, was on the island of Patmos and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet. I turned and saw one like a son of man. He laid his right hand on me saying, “Fear not, I am the first and the last, and the living one. I died, and behold I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys to Death and Hades.”

And one of the elders said to me, “Weep no more; behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has conquered!” And they sang a new song, saying, “Worthy are you to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slain, and by your blood you ransomed people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation, and you have made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they shall reign on the earth.”

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, and I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “Behold, the dwelling place of God is with man. He will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God. He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away.”

And he who was seated on the throne said, “Behold, I am making all things new. Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true.”
And he said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. No longer will there be anything accursed, but the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him.

And night will be no more. They will need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign forever and ever. The Spirit and the Bride say, "Come." Let the one who is thirsty come; let the one who desires take the water of life without price. He who testifies to these things says, "Surely I am coming soon."
