“When Christ calls a man, he bids him come and die.”

(Dietrich Bonhoeffer, The Cost of Discipleship [New York, NY: Touchstone, 1995], 89).

A Sobering Question

Missiologist Alan Hirsch asks: "How does a two-thousand-year-old institution that bears the name of Jesus... reach the point where making disciples—his explicit method and final, unambiguous command—becomes a marginal activity handled by a curriculum in a back room?"

- a. How much of our daily living is spent creating a false self-versus becoming what Christ wants us to be?
- b. What is one part of our “image,” public or private, we rather edit instead of Surrendering it to Jesus Christ? Is there a piece of FAC “image” we are still trying to edit?
